Biography:

Sacred Reich was a Phoenix, Arizona based thrash metal band that formed in 1985. Singer/songwriter Phil Rind's interest was in socially-conscious and political speed metal. After several records on Metal Blade Records, they signed to Hollywood Records for a short stint, but later returned to Metal Blade to continue their musical career. The band split in 2000.

Former drummer Dave McClain went on to join Machine Head in 1995. Lead guitarist Wiley Arnett went on to form The Human Condition with St. Madness vocalist Prophet in July of 2000.

In 2007, the band reunited to play several shows in Europe, including Wacken Open Air.

15. Big picture (Subhumans cover from 'Open book' EP)
16. Crawling [radio edit] (from 'Crawling' EP)

2009 was an important year for the band with a European Summer festival tour and the reissue of the 'American way' album. 'American way' ended up on spot 17 in the Rock Hard's most important Thrash albums ever!

In 2010 another reissue sees the light of day, the third full length of the band 'Independent' will be released with 5 bonus tracks (the tracks from the 'A question', 'Crawling' and 'Open book' EPs). It will be available as LTD Digipak with patch, LTD jewelbox with patch and regular jewelbox. 'Independent' classic thrash metal masterpiece, considered by many to be their best work.
